PRESS RELEASE

Jackson Resident Terrance Lee Plead Guilty to Eight Counts of Armed Robbery

December 19, 2014

For Immediate Release

On December 18, 2014, Jackson resident Terrance Lee, age 20, plead guilty to eight (8) counts of armed robbery.

On June 13, 2013, Lee and a co-defendant robbed four female victims at gunpoint as they exited St. Richard's Catholic Church, demanding their purses and belongings. The defendant used the victims' credit cards to purchase gas at a local service station. The victims positively identified the Lee from a photo lineup.

On June 17, 2013, Lee and a co-defendant robbed four people at gun point at the location of 3955 Ridgewood Road, taking their wallets and purses. Lee used the victims' credit cards at a local gas station which was captured on surveillance video. These victims also positively identified Lee from a photo lineup.

Hinds County Circuit Court Judge Winston Kidd sentenced Terrance Lee to a term of thirty (30) years in the custody of the Mississippi Department of Corrections with twelve (12) years suspended, eighteen (18) years to serve, four (4) years of Supervised Probation on each count of the indictment. The sentences will run concurrent.
